Subject: Corona pandemic: All India Reporter's gesture to the educational institutions: FREE ACCESS to AIR Online Legal Education & Professional Suite "lawspice.com" to all Law Students across India.

Respected Sir/Madam,

Corona pandemic has now affected INDIA and we are in the midst of complete national lockdown as a safety measure to control the epidemic. This has changed all our lives greatly and we are noticing a new meaning given to "normal life". This fight against COVID19 is a long one and we cannot give up. Staying home and managing everything that we earlier did as an outdoor work is the biggest challenge before us. Teaching in all educational institutions has come to a standstill and the concern of all Institutional heads, professors, lecturers is growing about the academic loss faced by their students. This is the time when we can make the best use of technology and help your students to cope up the loss of class room learning and maintain the academic calendar while ensuring their safety.

At such time of uncertainty, All India Reporter and its group of companies come forward to support you in your efforts to reach out to your students and help them to continue with their learning of law courses and professional work without any disruption, staying at home and being safe.

AIR happily volunteers to provide FREE ACCESS of legal educational content on its Online Legal Education Portal www.lawspice.com and Mobile Apps to all law students of 5 years and 3 years degree courses of all law colleges/institutions/universities across India. This portal has been developed under the erudite guidance of Hon'ble Judges, Senior Lawyers & Law Professionals, Vice Chancellors, Academicians and Subject Experts. Free access will be provided for the ensuing semester examinations of the Academic Year 2019-20 i.e till 31st May 2020, in support of the law students for examination preparation. It is our strong belief that our support will mitigate your concern and anxiety to overcome the humungous effect of the pandemic on the functioning of your institution and the grave loss to this academic session.

Our digital platforms www.lawspice.com, www.aironline.com bring to you all learning and law professional services 24/7. For availing this facility you can log on to our website www.lawspice.com, www.aironline.com , download our mobile Apps. Please login for registration and get the benefit of our services or call us on +91 8600104686.

www.lawspice.com is the best platform for learning from home. All that you need is an internet or wifi connection, which all of us have in this day of global connect. Preparation for the ensuing examination becomes easy with all necessary information at the finger tips on www.lawspice.com. REGISTRATION and access to study material along with MCQs, LQAs, PPTs is now made available FREE of cost and will be valid upto 31st MAY 2020. We humbly request you to extend this facility to all your students and make the best use of this platform for their examination preparation by being safe at home.

It is our humble request to give us an opportunity to help you, your staff and students to make the best use of the facility we are providing to stay connected while staying at home, being safe.

Let us all stay united in this fight against the pandemic and win over it with our determination... Never to give up.

Best Regards

Yours sincerely
