

ALL INDIA REPORTER

The All India Reporter was founded by late Shri.V.V.Chitale in 1914 in Nagpur. AIR is India's premier company in legal research providing access to law reports, publications and judgments of High Courts and the Supreme Court of India. It has established itself as an important source of citations, relied upon by all members of the legal fraternity. It is recognized for its authenticity and quality in India and most of the Common Wealth Countries. The publications of AIR are available across multiple media platforms that include print, website and mobile app.

AIR LAW ACADEMY AND RESEARCH CENTRE (ALARC)

ALARC is a public trust registered under the Bombay Public Trust Act. It aims to promote quality legal education. It is also India's leading editorial and research centre with highly talented and experienced team of academicians, scholars and professionals.

ALARC has founded "Lawspice.com" and flair talk, India's first legal magazine that summarizes news stories from a legal lens view. The website hosts a wide range of study and research tools for all members of the legal fraternity. Follow our Instagram Page for more details and Updates.

AIR CAFE caters to Clinical Legal Education (CLE) as per BCI Legal Education Rules, 2008 - Sec 7(1)(h) & (i). Currently seven cafes are operational across India. It is a CSR initiative by the group to provide free access to the legal information from leading publications. It aims at rekindling the reading habits of the legal fraternity, encouraging professional networking and mentoring law aspirants. AIR CAFE regularly conducts seminars, workshops and lecture series by legal luminaries for Law Students, Advocates and Professionals.
